The AOMAIS Sport II is a rugged Bluetooth speaker specifically designed for the outdoors and a project is proof of the complete IPX7. Therefore, everyday use observed will certainly be increased dramatically when used in a smaller volume configuration based on the test period, and probably longer than the manual suggests. The connections are very easily established and kept without problems. This is not the best bluetooth speaker in the world, but certainly performs without effort. You can even connect two Aomais Sport II speakers together to create left and right channels for a surround sound experience. Which means that now a consumer can take a Bluetooth speaker, which comes with a very good performance, a durable and is accessible, and is accessible. This is a speaker that, in the last dwarf, is a little tight in the middle to which means that the tops and the bass vein through a little more prominent and slightly disproportionately compared to comparison with the MIDS. As soon as you should expect to find the Real Bluetooth speaker in the box, along with a small microUSB charging cable (for USB), a small 3.5mm jack cable, as well as the user manual. Since this is Bluetooth 4.0, you would wait for a connection to the streaming device distance and is probably one of the lives where the speaker could be improved as a connection FALIZED became more prevalent under the distance of 33 peters suggested. We also like the fact that you can pair two of these speakers together to get left and right channels to increase sound dispersion. To mention not to mention that if you forget to turn off the speaker, it is one that comes with a car shutdown resource to which when it takes effect two minutes of inactivity. In terms of connectivity, and observed in the general performance section, very little to criticize the Aomais Sport II Bluetooth Speaker to. This speaker offers a Bluetooth very confidently and listed and never fell away or out during the test. The centralization of the upper panel is small dipped area, where you will find the main controls for the loudspeaker: This bluetooth speaker is able to produce an incredible sound of 20kg incredible sound. If you are looking for a small speaker in size, but powerful in production, it would be pressed to find one as loud as this, within a factor in a way as small as that, there is very little to complain here. After all, this is such a loudspeaker that the average user will probably never be reaching the volume levels needed to drain the speaker battery in any sitting. The sound quality of Sport II feels good and does not distort in higher volumes. The Aomais Sport II Bluetooth speaker is the one that has a performance very solidly over time and does not seem to really suffer in any respect of performance. However, that is where the typical appearance of the speaker ends. Buy AOMAIS Sport II Wireless Bluetooth speaker, which means it can withstand submersion in the water for up to 30 minutes and a depth of 1 meter. The speaker has Bluetooth 4.0 technology with NFC technology for a simple one-touch pairing with your mobile device. What is not something that can necessarily be said to other Bluetooth speakers that are currently available on the market. That while aesthetically adding to the speaker, they also act as a measure of comfort while keeping the speaker in a hand. However, if you are 25 feet away from the speaker, you should find zero problems with the connection and it is solid and reliable nearby. Especially because it costs less than $50 and includes a free inflatable bed for the speaker. Similarly, it also needs to be mentioned that there are no problems when the speaker is left out. This is just a good performance portable Bluetooth speaker.
